

1. Which of the following statements are true?
 - a. HTML form is the only way to pass data to the server.
 - b. Data sent using GET method are hidden from user.
 - c. Data sent using POST method is hidden from user.
 - d. POST messages are encrypted by default.
 - e. POST message can be longer than 1024 characters.
 - f. GET method has request body.
 - g. POST method has request body.
 - h. We can have more than one form in a web page.
 - i. HTML form uses method POST by default.
 - j. `<input type="textarea"/>` creates a text area field.
 - k. We group radio button using `<fieldset>` so that they behave as related radio buttons.
2. Write a HTML form with two input text for getting user_id and password. When the login button is clicked the form should submit user input to path '/login' using post method.
3. What are the use of following input text element attributes?
 - a. placeholder
 - b. size
 - c. maxlength
 - d. value
4. Why is `<label>` tag important?
5. Write css rule that targets all the text fields in your html form.
6. Write regex that match all the phone numbers with are code 641 and numbers can be in format (641) xxx-xxxx but all the formatting is optional.